For The Love Of It.
A Four Song EP

Sweet summer sweet (I love you)

The sun is red
Shining over your head
And I love you
No cloud in the sky
Who wonders why
'Cause I love you
The sea is blue
The beach is you
And I love you
We swim like fish
It's all we wish
'Cause I love you

Summer is great
Let's make it late
'Cause I love you
We're living today
Wish you could stay
'Cause I love ya'

Awake all night
'Cause it feels all right
And I love you
We play with sand
In this our land
And I love you

Sweet summer sweet
Let me kiss your feet
'Cause I love ya'
Sweet summer sweet
You're all I need
'Cause I love ya'

Sweet summer sweet
Let me kiss your feet
'Cause I love ya'
Sweet summer sweet
You're all I need
'Cause I love ya'

After the sun
You're the greatest fun
And I love you
You see you'll get
Let's go to bed
'Cause I love ya'
I'm happy like I am
Who gives a damn
'Cause I love you
Do you want to dance
Let's give it a chance
'Cause I love you

Sweet summer sweet
Let me kiss your pretty feet
Sweet summer sweet
You're all I need
Sweet summer sweet
Let me kiss your sandy feet

Sweet summer sweet
You're all I need
'Cause I love ya'

Sweet summer sweet
Let me kiss your feet
'Cause I love ya'
Sweet summer sweet
You're all I need
'Cause I love ya'

Hurt by a rose.

I got hurt by a rose
The blame is on me
The pain goes thru my spine
She's dead now, I suppose

I got hurt by a rose
The blame is on me
The pain goes thru my spine
She's dead now, I suppose

She was all sweet
Gave me all of her time
Gave her my last dime
No more do I need

She was all sweet
Gave me all of her time
Gave her my last dime
No more do I need

Hey Girl!

Hey girl, where are you going with that gun in your hand?

Why are you full with this aggression?
Did he get out of your side of bed?
And now you want to shoot someone dead?
Like some kind of fashionable depression?

Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl! Hey girl!
Stop now

Why are you full with this insane hate?
Did he put on your waitress skirt?
Looking for a place where it doesn't hurt?
Isn't there someone in the wait?

Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl! Hey girl!
Stop now

Why all this furious anger in silence?
Is there no warm place where you can stay?
They all let you go anywhere but away?
Where is the hidden love in violence?

Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl Stop now
Hey girl! Hey girl!
Stop now

Look out guys; baby's got a gun.

You're Beautiful

You got no opinion about planet earth.
You don't know where the damn place is.
You can't remember what you voted for.
And why your brother died at war.
One time you read a book
It was at some kind of school
Something romantic. That's what you are looking for.

You don't know why people hate each other.
You don't know why people love a god.

You're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. Beautiful baby.

You have an opinion about the neighbourhood.
There're too many leaves coming from the trees.
You know who is pimper one in the charts
You don't care about your brother's C.D.'s
One time you went to a museum.
It was with some kind of school.
You did not go in. It's not what you from life.

You don't know why people kill each other.
You don't know why people kill for a god.

You're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. Beautiful baby.

You never knew there was a second world war.
You ask me: Paris how far?
You never knew there was a second gulf war.
You ask me: Berlin how far?

You're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful. Beautiful baby.

Beautiful baby. You're beautiful. So fucking beautiful.

You're beautiful. Beautiful baby.
Oh, you're beautiful. So fucking beautiful.
You're beautiful. I don't understand a word you're saying.
But you're beautiful.
Fucking beautiful.
